The CODESYS Group

At CODESYS, everything is about software for automation technology. We employ over 230 people at our headquarters in Kempten and in our subsidiaries in China, Italy and the USA. Of course, this does not only involve the development of software, but also marketing, sales, and the administration of our internationally active group.

Life and work – we keep the balance.

Working at the CODESYS Group means:
Exciting topics, excellent working conditions, and an open environment that makes you feel good.

We also support you in staying healthy and keeping your life in balance. We are happy to adapt your working hours to your specific needs and life phases.
